

AUGUST 2015
FRIENDLY, BUT IMPORTANT, NEWSLETTERS ABOUT
HOW TO HAVE FUN WHILE SUPPORTING THE CRC!

# 1 – NINE 'N DINE FOR $99!

To all CRC Supporters!

The Hidden Quarry proposal is heading to the OMB. GET is getting ready to take a position in September. CRC life is feeling pretty serious. -- It is serious, and on top of this, we need lots of money if we are to make our bite as big as our bark!

Some of you have come forward over the past two years to leaven our concern with fun, and to raise wider awareness of the issues. This newsletter features one of three September events organized by CRC members, events which have the potential to raise a meaningful amount of money – alongside our ongoing membership fee-raising and calls for donations. Two more newsletters will follow to highlight two more exciting adventures.

You can make a difference! Together, all 950+ of us, we can make a difference!

Please attend one or more of these events to make sure they reach their financial potential. Make CRC a priority this fall. We guarantee there is something for everyone, and everything for some. Golf, biking or hiking, and a full Greek dinner. Invite your friends. Reward the generous, time-consuming and pains-taking work of your volunteer-neighbours. CRC is you!

Yours with the CRC news, Linda Sword

IT'S NINE 'N DINE FOR $99!
THE TINY HOLES ADD UP TO NINE.
DINNER ON FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 11,
TO STOP A BIG HOLE ON HIGHWAY 7!*

**We welcome more and better nonsense poems anytime!!*

This is CRC's second annual golf tournament. Volunteer organizer Gail Stevens, Rockwood resident, CRC member and part owner of Turtle Creek Golf Club on the Guelph Line, has once again enlisted the family-owned Club to help CRC raise funds to stop the Hidden Quarry. Please join in!

This year we welcome back André Cuerrier, Golf Pro as our genial MC. André lives on Eramosa 6th Line, close to the Hidden Quarry site, and is the well-known Director of the Academies of Golf Town across Canada, where he works with other PGA professionals to provide year-round training for golfers. He'll be on the course that day too, so you never know when you'll get a pointer from a pro! André will also make sure that the two competitions "Beat the Pro" and the "Putting Contest" really provide a stimulating challenge for guests.

It's a shot gun start, first ball scoring and you're off, riding the course, in style, in a golf cart. The course has been designed and developed by Gail's son Robert Stevens along the natural contours of the land. The natural beauty is matched by beautiful gardens created and maintained by Gail herself.

Why not make up a team for a friendly Friday afternoon of golf, nine leisurely holes. Even those of us who don't know a drive from a putt had a glorious time last year. Think of it as a teachable moment. As a reward there will be gift bags for everyone!

And then, relax with a full chicken rotisserie dinner, silent auction and, of course, the presentation of prizes for the golfers who shone that day. There will be prizes for the top 3 teams and for the "most honest team" (hmmm...).

Donate to the silent auction: The silent auction is growing daily – with a variety of donated items ranging from excellent wines to legal fees. You too can bring your company's product or service to the attention of attendees – as a donation to the silent auction. And if you are not part of a company, there are lots of options. Last year home-made pies almost caused a stampede of bids! Why not make an offer to prepare and serve a proper tea party? An offer of your children to rake leaves? What can you offer? What would you like to win?

Sponsor a Hole: If your company sponsors a hole, the company name will be on a sign at the hole and the sponsorship will be recognized at the dinner. It's an opportunity to get some visibility and to meet a new public. There are still some holes left.
