

Christmas Dolls Support CRC!

Rockwood's own Wendy Groskopf donates 12 charming seasonal dolls for CRC auction!

Place your bid on CRC's Facebook Page!
<https://www.facebook.com/crcrockwood/?fref=ts>
Keep watch for competing bids!

Auction Deadline: December 18, 2015, midnight.

Wendy Groskopf's doll-making workshop in Rockwood is overflowing with dolls of every description – and they fly out of the house to buyers around the world – from Australia to Brazil, France to the Middle East. Wendy is one of Rockwood's hidden treasures.

These twelve different and unique hand-crafted Christmas dolls would be welcome guests in any home. They are 15 – 18 inches high. They have impeccable manners.

Wendy is a committed supporter of the CRC. Her husband, Perry, is on the CRC Board of Directors. When she suggested she would donate 12 dolls for a CRC Christmas auction, we accepted with alacrity. Apparently the dolls, from Santa to his amiable elves, were all eager to help.

You can see more of Wendy's work on her Facebook page - <https://www.facebook.com/wendy.groskopf?fref=ts>

To bid:

- Go to <https://www.facebook.com/crcrockwood/?fref=ts>
- Look at all 12 photos
- Choose the one or ones you would like to win
- Comment by stating your bid amount
- Minimum bid $50
- Bid higher than the most recent bid
- Keep watching to keep your bid the highest!
- Share with your friends

For more information, please contact Elisabeth.Crha@crcrockwood.org
519-856-1428